

cruise LUNENBURG

The charming town of Lunenburg is one of the only two urban communities in North America designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Filled with original colonial buildings and colourful façades, amazing restaurants, distilleries and breweries, artisans and unique shops, Lunenburg is ready to greet cruise visitors.

CONTACT

Hilda Russell

Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic
PO Box 1363, 68 Bluenose Drive
Lunenburg NS B0J 2C0

Phone: 902-634-4794, ext. 228

Email: Hilda.Russell@novascotia.ca

THINGS TO DO

- Plan a visit to the Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic where you'll unfold the truths of our fishing heritage that is heavily entwined with our coastal culture
- Visit the Bluenose II, an exact replica of the famed schooner Bluenose, which became a national icon after racing undefeated for the International Fishermen's Cup in 1938. Also known as "Queen of the North Atlantic," the Bluenose represents Nova Scotia around the world and appears on the Canadian dime
- Who doesn't love a visit to an artisanal micro-distillery? Stop in to see how Ironworks crafts its spirits
- Golf a challenging 9-hole, par 35, 2,592-yard course with spectacular waterside views of the town
- Explore the walkable, picturesque waterfront and downtown filled with colourful buildings, an abundance of art, galleries and boutiques, and incredible restaurants, distilleries and breweries

EMBRACE THE DIFFERENCES

cruise
ATLANTIC CANADA*

CRUISEATLANTICCANADA.COM